

Camille N'Diaye

Product engineer for public-interest services

PROFILE

Product engineer who builds accessible services for multilingual communities and turns policy constraints into reliable software.

EXPERIENCE

Senior product engineer

Civic Works Cooperative

Mar 2021 – Jun 2025

Paris, France

Led delivery of case-management services used by municipal support teams.

Cut application processing time by 38% without removing manual review.

CONTACT

camille.ndiaye@example.com

+33 6 12 34 56 78

Paris, France

Portfolio

Code profile

SKILLS

Accessible product engineering

Advanced

React TypeScript Design systems

LANGUAGES

English

en

Professional

French

fr

Native

EDUCATION

University of Lyon

Master of Science, Human-computer interaction

2015 – 2017

Lyon, France

Distinction

Researched form completion across French and English public services.

PROJECTS

Plain Forms

Maintainer

Sep 2023 – Present

Open form patterns for services that must work with keyboards and screen readers.

Published tested patterns in two languages.

CERTIFICATIONS

Web Accessibility Specialist

Accessibility Guild, WAS-2048

May 12, 2022 – May 12, 2026

AWARDS

Public Service Software Prize

Digital Commons Forum, 2024

Recognized a multilingual intake service built with community reviewers.

VOLUNTEER

Workshop mentor

Code Neighbours

Jan 2020 – Present

Saint-Denis, France

Runs monthly web workshops for career changers.

Prepared accessible exercises used by twelve volunteer mentors.

PUBLICATIONS

Designing forms across language boundaries

Camille N'Diaye, Amina Diallo

Public Digital Review, Nov 8, 2024

A field report on translated labels, validation messages, and assisted completion.